I. THE ELEMENTS AND PRACTICE OF RIGGING, SEAMANSHIP, and NAVAL TACTICS. Leaving wholly untouched the Subject of Ship-building, this Work embraces every Art necessary to the Equipment of a Ship in a most particular Manner. The making of Masts, Ropes, Anchors, Sails, and Blocks, is discussed with a minute Precision which will be found not only new but serviceable to the Naval Art.

The British Seaman and British Officer will find the complex Subjects of Rigging, Seamanship, and Naval Tactics, more fully and correctly treated of than has ever before appeared in the English Language.

The Whole is elegantly printed on a superfine wove Paper, with new Types, illustrated with upwards of One Hundred beautiful and correct Engravings, and ornamented with a Frontispiece, designed by SMIRKE, and engraved by NEAGLE. In Two Volumes, Quarto, Price Four Guineas, in Boards.

II. DIMENSIONS of the Masts, Yards, Rigging, Blocks, Guns, Gun-Carriages, Anchors, and Cables, of the most approved Ship of each Class in the British Navy. On a large Broadside. Price Three shillings.

AMIGABLE NAVY SOCIETY,

For Relief of distressed Sea-Officers their Widows and Orphans, under the Superintendance of the Hon. Adm. Barrington, Lt. Gov. Locker, and Rear-Adm. Ommamney, Treasurers.

Subscriptions are received by Messrs. Drummonds, Charing-Cross; Child & Co. Temple-Bar; Vere & Co. and Harcourt & Co. Lombard-Street; Griffiths & Co. Portland; Bulter & Co. Plymouth; and by Mr. E. H. Locker, Navy-Office, Secretary to the Society; of whom Particulars may be known, on Application by Letter or otherwise.

Continuation of STEEL's new and useful Nautical Publications.

The following Work having been honoured with the Approbation of the Board of Admiralty, the Publisher respectfully requests the Officers of the British Navy (particularly First Lieutenants) to favour it with their Attention, as a singularly useful Publication.

XIV. THE PERPETUAL BIRTHING and WATCH BILL BOOK. By which the most tedious Part of birthing a Ship's Company may be performed as well before she is manned as after, and Officers be materially assisted in fulfilling a very troublesome Part of their Duty. With an engraved Plan of the between-decks of a 74 Gun-Ship, divided into sleeping and messing Places; an Attention to which, when Ships are Battering, in Dock, will save much Trouble, Expence, and Materials, will harden less Dirt, and that Part will be immediately fit for Use, when afloat, which it is not by the present Method. By D. ROSS, Maier in the Royal Navy. Price 11. 1s. od.

This Work is bound up as a Pocket-Book, and completely furnished with moveable Vellums for the Men's Names, &c.

XV. THE ART of SAIL-MAKING, as practised in the Royal Navy, and according to the most approved Method in the Merchant-Service. Illustrated by numerous Figures, with full and accurate Tables. In 1 Vol. 8vo. Price 9s. in Boards.

XVI. SEAMANSHIP, in THEORY and PRACTICE. Illustrated with Engravings. In the theoretic Part of this Work, the Laws of Motion in Fluids, with Regard to Ships; the Centres of Gravity and Rotation; the Effect of every Sail, in their various Degrees of Trimming; and the Action of the Rudder; are particularly and scientifically treated of.

The second Part, which carries Theory into Practice, commences with a Ship at RIVER-MOORINGS, when first launched; and Proceeds with giving ample Directions for her future Guidance with Regard to BALLASTING, LADING, ANCHORING, MOORING, WEIGHING ANCHOR, GETTING UNDER-SAIL, TACKING, VEERING, LYING-TO, SOUNDING, DRIVING, SCUDDING, CHASING, BOARDING, &c. &c. In 1 Vol. 8vo. Price 7s. 6d. in Boards.

XVII. THE ART of RIGGING, with neat Engravings, containing ample Directions for performing the most minute Operations in the PROGRESSIVE METHOD of RIGGING all Ships and Vessels, with full and correct Tables of the Dimensions and Quantities of every Particular for the same. In 1 Vol. 8vo. Price 10s. 6d. in Boards.

XVIII. THE ART of Making MASTS, YARDS, GAFFS, BOOMS, BLOCKS, and GARS, as practised in the Royal Navy, and according to the most approved Method in the Merchant-Service. Including a Description of an improved Rule for Mast-Makers: Also a new Method by which large Yards may be made from small Trees, and repaired when sprung in the Shigs, &c. — With Plates of the Masts, Yards, &c. and their different Parts, on a large Scale, and a great Variety of Figures to illustrate the other Subjects. Price 11. 5s. od. in Boards. — Where Ship-Carpenters will aware of the great Assistance and Advantage to be derived from this Work, it is presumed no one would go to Sea without it.

XIX. THE SYSTEM of NAVAL TACTICS: Combining the established Theory with general Practice, and particularly with the present PRACTICE OF THE BRITISH NAVY. — Illustrated with upwards of One Hundred COLOURED FIGURES, which exhibit, in a plain and familiar Manner, the Station and Movements of each Ship, as well as those of the Squadrons and Divisions, in every Evolution. Price 7s. 6d. in Boards.

XX. On the 18 Day of every Month will be published, Price One Shilling, (on the Plan of this Navy List.) The Monthly ARMY LIST, containing the Whole of the effective Army of Great-Britain, as divided into the Regulars, the Fencibles, the Militia, the Gentlemen and Yeomanry, and the Volunteers; with the present actual Head-Quarters and Stations of every Regiment. To which are annexed Lists of the General and Field Officers, of the Corps of Artillery and Engineers, of Garrison Barracks, of the Staff in the Three Kingdoms; and Accounts of the Pay of Officers and Privates, and of other financial Concerns: With a monthly Register of several circular Letters and official Regulations, of Army Incidents, &c. Published by Messrs. Ingham and Company, Bow Street; Richardson, Royal-Exchange; Symonds, Paternoster-Row; D. Steel, Tower-Hill; and by all other Booksellers, &c. in Great-Britain and Ireland.

XXI. Shortly will be published, by Subscription, a PRINT, 19 Inches by 24, of the important Victory obtained by the British Fleet, under the Command of Admiral Duncan, over the Dutch Fleet, off Camperdown, October 11, 1797. CAPTAINS, PAY PER DAY.—1st Rate, 11.—2d Rate, 16s.—3d Rate, 13s.—4th Rate, 10s.—5th Rate, 8s.—6th Rate, 8s.—Fire-Ships, Hospital-Ships, and Prison-Ships, are paid as 5th-Rates. Sloops, Bombs, Yachts, &c. are paid as 6th-Rates.

The first Captain to the Admiral and Commander in Chief of the Fleet has the Pay of a Rear-Admiral. The second Captain to the same Admiral, and the Captains to other Admirals, have the Pay of a Captain of a First-Rate.

The Captains to Vice-Admirals have the Pay of a Second-Rate; and the Captains to Rear-Admirals the Pay of a Third-Rate.

But, if a Vice or Rear Admiral serve in a First or Second Rate, the Captain has the proper Pay of that Rate.

Captains commence Pay from the Date of their Commissions, unless they are appointed in the Place of an Officer removed, who is to enjoy his Pay till relieved by his Successor.

CAPTAINS' HALF-PAY.—Thirty of the Oldest 10s. per Day. Silverius Moriarty the last.—The next 50, 8s. per Day. Wm Chambers, the last.—And the Rest 6s. per Day.

Officers on Half-Pay make Oath, Half-yearly, that they hold no Employment in the Public Service at the Time.

SUPERANNUATED CAPTAINS, AT 10s. PER DAY.

DISTRIBUTION OF PRIZES TAKEN BY SHIPS IN THE ROYAL NAVY.

THE Value of Prizes is divided into eight equal Parts; of which the Captain, or Captains, have three-Eighths but if a Flag-Officer be on-board, then the Captain or Captains have two Eighths, and the Flag-Officer one Eighth; subject to the Regulations hereafter mentioned.

Captains of Marines and Land Forces, Sea Lieutenants, and Master, one Eighth between them; and, if a Physician to the Fleet or Squadron be actually on-board, he is included in this Class.

The Lieutenants and Quarter-Masters of Marines; Lieutenants, Ensigns, and Quarter-Masters of Land Forces; Secretaries of Admirals or Commodores; Boatwains, Gunners, Purser, Carpenter, Master's Mates, Surgeon, Pilot, and Chaplain; one Eighth between them.

The Midshipmen, Captain's Clerk, Master-Sailmaker, Schoolmaster, Carpenter's Mates, Boatwain's Mates, Gunner's Mates, Master-at-Arms, Corporal, Yeoman of the Sheets, Cockswain, Quarter-Masters, Quarter-Master's Mates, Surgeon's Mates, Yeoman of the Powder Room, Sergeants of Marines and Land Forces on-board; one Eighth between them.

The Trumpeters, Quarter-Gunners, Carpenter's Crew, Stewards, Cook, Armourer, Steward's Mate, Cook's Mate, Gunsmith, Coopers, Sweeper, Ordinary Trumpeter, Barber, Able Seamen, Ordinary Seamen, Marines and other Soldiers, and all other Persons affixing and doing Duty on-board; two Eighths between them.

REGULATIONS CONCERNING THE FLAG-OFFICER'S ONE-EIGHTH.

First. Where there is one Flag-Officer only upon a Service, he has the One-Eighth of all Prizes taken by Ships under his Command.—Secondly. A Flag-Officer, sent to command abroad, is not entitled to share till he arrives and takes upon him the Command.—Thirdly. If an inferior Flag-Officer is sent to reinforce a superior Flag-Officer abroad, the superior Flag is not to share any Prizes, taken by the inferior Flag before he arrives and receives due Order from the superior Flag.—Fourthly. A Chief Flag-Officer, returning from abroad, has no Share of Prizes taken by the Ships left behind to act under another Command.—Fifthly. If a Flag-Officer is sent to command at the Out-Ports of this Kingdom, he has no Share of Prizes taken by Ships which fall from that Port by Order of the Admiralty.—Sixthly. When more Flag-Officers than one serve together, the Eighth is thus distributed, viz. If two Flags, the Chief has Two-Thirds of the Eighth, and the other has the remaining Third; but, if more than two Flags, the Chief has One Half of the Eighth, and the remaining Half is divided among the other Flags.—Sevently. Commodores, with Captains under them, are considered as Flag-Officers.—Eighthly. The First Captain to the Admiral and Commander in Chief, and also the First Captain to a Flag-Officer commanding a Fleet of Twenty Ships of the Line, are considered as Flag-Officers, and share as the junior Flag-Officers of such Fleet.

REGULATIONS CONCERNING CUTTERS, &c. COMMANDED BY LIEUTENANTS.

First. Such Lieutenants have Three Eighths; but, if under a Flag-Officer, the Flag has One Eighth, and the Lieutenant Two-Eighths.—Secondly. The Share of the Master, or other Person being second in Command, and the Pilot (if one on-board) is One Eighth; of which Two Thirds is for the Master, or second in Command, and One Third to the Pilot; but, if there be no Pilot, then the Whole of the One Eighth is for the Master or second in Command.—Thirdly. Surgeon or Surgeon's Mate (where there is no Surgeon), Midshipman, and Clerk and Steward; One Eighth between them.—Fourthly. Boatwain's, Gunner's, and Carpenter's Mates; Yeomen of the Sheets, Sailmaker, Quarter-Master, and Quarter-Master's Mate; One Eighth between them.—Fifthly. The Seamen, Marines, and other Persons on board, affixing in the Captivity, Two Eighths between them.

These Regulations are for Captures made by Cutters, &c. when no other of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War are in Sight; for, in that Case, the Lieutenant, Officers, &c. on-board the Cutter, share only as Persons of equal Rank.

HEAD-MONEY. The Commissioners of the Navy pay 5l. for every Man who was living at the Beginning of the Engagement on-board any hostile Ship, taken, burnt, sunk, or otherwise destroyed: and this Bounty is distributed in the same Proportions as the Value of Prizes above mentioned.

GRATUITIES TO THE RELATIONS OF OFFICERS AND OTHERS SLAIN IN FIGHT WITH THE ENEMY.

- I. To a widow, a full year's pay according to the post her husband served in at his death.
- II. Orphans, each the one-third proportion of a widow; and posthumous children are esteemed orphans.
- III. Captains married are not entitled to any bounty.
- IV. If there is no widow, a mother (if a widow, and above fifty years of age) is entitled to a widow's share.
- V. The relations of officers of first-ranks are entitled to the same bounty as those of officers of like rank in fourth rates.
- VI. Captains are to set down the names of the slain at the end of the muster-book, and on what occasion.
- VII. This bounty extends to those who are slain in tenders, in boats, or on-shore, as well as those on-board the ships: also to those who are slain in fight with pirates, or in an encounter with the ships of friends by mistake; also those who die on their wounds after battle are all esteemed as persons slain.

Continuation of STEEL's new and useful Nautical Publications.

The following Work having been honoured with the Approbation of the Board of Admiralty, the Publisher respectfully requests the Officers of the British Navy (particularly First Lieutenants) to favour it with their Attention, as a singularly useful Publication.

XIV. The PERPETUAL BIRTHING and WATCH BILL BOOK. By which the most tedious Part of birthing a Ship's Company may be performed as well before the Ship is manned as after, and Officers be more easily assisted in fulfilling a very troublesome Part of their Duty. With an engraved Plan of the between-decks of a 74 Gun-Ship, divided into sleeping and mending Places; an Attention to which, when Ships are Battening, in Dock, will save much Trouble, Expence, and Materials, will save less Dirt, and that Part will be immediately fit for Use, when afloat, which it is not by the present Method. By D. ROSS, Master in the Royal Navy. Price 1*l.* 1*s.* 0*d.*

This Work is bound up as a Pocket-Book, and completely furnished with moveable Vellums for the Men's Names, &c.

XV. The ART of SAIL-MAKING, as practised in the Royal-Navy, and according to the most approved Method in the Merchant-Service. Illustrated by numerous Figures, with full and accurate Tables. In 1 Vol. 8vo. Price 9*s.* in Boards.

XVI. SEAMANSHIP, in THEORY and PRACTICE. Illustrated with Engravings. In the theoretic Parts of this Work, the Laws of Motion in Fluids, with Regard to Ships; the Centres of Gravity and Rotation; the Effect of every Sail in various Degrees of Trim; the Action of the Rudder; are particularly and scientifically treated of.

The second Part, which carries the Theory into Practice, commences with a Ship at RIVER-MOORINGS, when first launch- and proceeds with giving ample Directions for her future Guidance with Respect to BALLASTING, LADING, YCHORING, MOORING, WEIGHING ANCHOR, GETTING UNDER-SAIL, TACKLING, VEERING, LYING-TO, SOUNDING, DRIVING, SCUDDING, CHASING, BOARDING, &c. &c. In 1 Vol. 8vo. Price 7*s.* 6*d.* in Boards.

XVII. The ART of RIGGING, with neat Engravings, containing ample Directions for performing the most minute Operations in the PROGRESSIVE METHOD of RIGGING all Ships and Vessels, with full and correct Tables of the Dimensions and Quantities of every Particular for the same. In 1 Vol. 8vo. Price 10*s.* 6*d.* in Boards.

XVIII. The ART of Making MASTS, YARDS, GAFFS, BOOMS, BLOCKS, and OARS, as practised in the Royal-Navy, and according to the most approved Method in the Merchant-Service. Including a Description of an improved Rule for Mast-Makers: Also a new Method by which large Yards may be made from small Trees, and repaired when sprung in the Slings, &c. — With Plans of the Masts, Yards, &c. and their different Parts, on a large Scale, and a great Variety of Figures to illustrate the other subjects. Price 1*l.* 5*s.* in Boards. — Were Ship-Carpenters well aware of the great Assistance and Advantage to be derived from this Work, it is presumed none would go to Sea without it.

XIX. The SYSTEM of NAVAL TACTICS: Combining the established Theory with general Practice, and particularly with the present PRACTICE OF THE BRITISH NAVY. — Illustrated with upwards of One Hundred COLOURED FIGURES, which exhibit, in a plain and familiar Manner, the Station and Movements of each Ship, as well as those of the Squadrons and Divisions, in every Evolution. Price 7*s.* 6*d.* in Boards.
